

Doreen Biskup

Doreen Biskup is General Manager of MICE ACADEMY and Vice President of the Association of Event Planners e.V. (VDVO). She has extensive expertise, most notably in the fields of event education and conception. She is particularly interested in the questions of how and why certain event elements work compared to others, and how the players in the sector can work together more effectively and efficiently. After a commercial apprenticeship, she made her way into the event industry through stations at Vodafone, as a freelance project manager in the agency sector, and finally she came into academia, where she has taught at several private universities. A degree in Business Administration and a Master's degree in Education round off her portfolio.
