

Alexander Trieb

Alexander Trieb has over 20 years of start-up and digital experience and is currently one of three General Partners at ennea capital partners (ecp), based in Berlin, Munich and London. The company focuses exclusively on the travel & mobility industry. ecp supports startups in strategic and operational consulting, fundraising and M&A. In addition, ecp invests in early-stage startups and is currently in the process of setting up a dedicated investment fund.

Prior to that, Alexander was at Palantir, a global Unicorn from Silicon Valley, providing complex data integration and analysis for corporations, governments and government agencies. For the last 12 years Alexander has been a start-up founder and CEO in the travel industry. His most recent startup, travel audience, sold Alexander to Amadeus and brought travel audience into a global and profitable business. He started his career in the dot.com boom in Boston after his studies at Boston University and after his master studies at the Vienna University of Technology he worked for several years as a management and IT consultant.

Alexander is originally from Vienna and spent his youth in Spain, Costa Rica and the USA. He currently lives in Berlin and is a passionate traveller, wine connoisseur and father of his two children.

Contact data

Alexander Trieb

General Partner
ennea capital partners GmbH

---

Event

It's The Location, Stupid: The Best Habitats For Startups

Thursday, March 5, 2020, 16.00 - 17.00

Hall 6.1, eTravel Stage

Official Partner Country
ITB Berlin 2020

Co-Host ITB Berlin Convention 2020

EXPERTENWISSEN –
IM ITB TICKET INBEGRIFFEN

Kurzfristige Änderungen vorbehalten.